OFFICE MEMORANDUM

No. AR-13/28/75(Pt)

Dated, Kohima, the 30th May, 2017Condonation of overage of Government servants.

All appointments to the Government service are required to be made as per the age limits prescribed under the rules. Condonation of overage after 01.01.1987 was banned vide this Department's Office Memorandum No.AR-13/28/75 dated 04.08.1987. As the proposals for condonation of overage continued to be referred to P&AR Department, often towards the retirement of the Government employee concerned, the instructions were re-iterated vide O.M. of even number dated 11.08.2016 that no person beyond the prescribed age limit may be appointed in any Government service. It was also stipulated that cases of condonation of overage of Government employees appointed after 01.01.1987 will require clearance of P&AR Department as well as approval of the Cabinet.

2. It is observed that cases of condonation of overage arise mainly due to non-adherence to proper procedure for making appointment in Government service. Vide this Department's O.M. No. AR/ASSO/98 dated 06.06.2016, the ban on ad-hoc/casual/temporary/work-charged appointments was re-iterated and appointment on contract basis was also banned. As such, no case of overage appointment should arise after 06.06.2016.

3. It has been decided that all Departments may review their incumbency lists and service books to ascertain if there is any case pending for condonation of overage. Such review should be completed by 31.07.2017. Pending cases for condonation of overage, if any, should be referred to P&AR Department by 30.08.2017. In exceptional circumstances, a further grace period of one month may be allowed. No case for condonation of overage shall be entertained by P&AR Department after 30.09.2017.
